

give to the recipient thereof a signed statement in writing, in a form currently approved by the Commissioner, specifying the advice, recommendation or information given, and a receipt, in a form currently approved by the Commissioner, for the fee paid by such recipient or on his behalf, or a statement, in a form currently approved by the Commissioner, of the fee to be paid therefor.

(13) The Commissioner may suspend or revoke any insurance adviser's license if after giving notice and hearing to the licensee named in such license, he determines that the licensee named in such license, (a) has violated any provision of the insurance law, or has violate any law in the course of his dealings as an insurance adviser; or (b) has made a material misstatement in the application for such license; or (c) has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or (d) has demonstrated his incompetency or untrustworthiness to act as an insurance adviser. Any licensed insurance adviser or any person aggrieved may file with the Commissioner a verified complaint setting forth facts showing sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any insurance adviser's license. Upon the filing of such complaint, the Commissioner shall, after notice and hearing as hereinbefore provided, determine whether such license shall be suspended or revoked.

(14) No person whose license has been so revoked shall be entitled to any license or renewal license, in any license or renewal license under this Section, for a period of one year after such revocation, or if such revocation be judicially reviewed, for one year after the final determination of such judicial proceeding confirming the action of the Commissioner in revoking such license.

(15) If an application for a license under this Section be rejected, or if any such license be suspended or revoked by the Commissioner, he shall forthwith give notice to the applicant, or to the licensee, as the case may be, by registered mail addressed to his last known address.

(16) The actoin of the Commissioner in issuing o rrefusing to issue or in refusing to renew an insurance adviser's license, or in suspending or revoking or in refusing to suspend or revoke such a license, shall be subject to review by the Superior Court of Baltimore City at the instance of the applicant for such license, or of the licensee under any license suspended or revoked, as the case may be, or of any person aggrieved thereby.

(17) Licensees under this Act shall be known as Insurance Advisers.

(18) Should and section or part of a section of this Act be held to be invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any of the remaining
