

(b) False or misleading advertising as a Funeral Director or Embalmer.

(c) Solicitation of business by the licensee, his agents or employees whether such solicitation occurs after death or while death is impending; provided that this Act shall not be deemed to prohibit general advertising.

(d) Employment by the licensee of persons known as "cappers", "steerers", or "solicitors" or other persons to obtain funeral directing or embalming business.

(e) Employment directly or indirectly of any apprentice, agent, assistant, embalmer, employee or other person on part or full time, or on commission, for the purpose of calling upon individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular Funeral Director or Embalmer.

(f) The buying of business by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, or the direct or indirect payment or offer of payment of a commission by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees for the purpose of securing business.

(g) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice funeral directing and embalming.

(h) Solicitation or acceptance by a licensee of any commission, bonus or rebate in consideration of recommending or causing a dead human body to be disposed of in any crematory, mausoleum or cemetery.

(i) Violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

(j) Violation of any State law or municipal or County ordinance or regulation affecting the handling, custody, care or transportation of dead human bodies.

(k) Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license.

(l) Refusing to surrender the custody of a dead human body upon the demand of the person lawfully entitled to the custody thereof.

(m) The selling or offering for sale of shares, certificates or interests in the business of any Funeral Director or Embalmer or in any corporation owning or conducting an undertaking or embalming establishment under the promise of or purporting to give to the purchasers thereof a right to the services of such Funeral Director, Embalmer or corporation at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public at large.

Before proceeding to suspend or revoke any such license, the person against whom complaint is made shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and the charges made against him, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board in person, or by attorney, and at such hearing testi-
