

or special election held for that purpose be first had and obtained after twenty days' public notice by advertisement in two newspapers, if so many be published in said City.

SEC. 50. The Mayor and City Council is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith and credit of the City any sum or sums of money, other than for temporary use or for refunding purposes, and may issue bonds of indebtedness for the same in such sums payable at such times and on such conditions as they may by ordinance prescribe, providing first, however, that said bonded debt or debts be fully liquidated within thirty (30) years from the date of their issue and further providing that the assent of a majority of the legal voters cast at a general or special election held for that purpose be first had and obtained after twenty days' public notice by advertisement in two newspapers, if so many be published in said City.

SEC. 51. The creation of any bonded indebtedness for the liquidation of any floating debt, in whole or in part, regardless of what portion of said bonded debt is to be used for any other purpose than discharging the floating debt, is strictly prohibited after January 1st, 1942.

SEC. 52. Both the notice by publication and the description on the ballots setting forth the purpose of such loan or loans shall be complete and described with minute particularity and no portion of the funds so authorized to be spent may be disposed of in any other manner.

SEC. 53. No such proposition shall again be submitted to popular vote until at least six months have elapsed from the date of the election at which said proposition was disapproved.

SEC. 54. No indebtedness created contrary to these provisions shall be enforceable for collection of either interest or principal by the holder or holders thereof whosoever it, he or they may be.
