

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed as interfering with the collection of any taxes heretofore levied in Montgomery County or in any town, municipality or special taxing area in said County, and that all state, county and local taxes for the year 1940 and previous years heretofore levied or which ought to have been levied before the effective date of this Act, shall, in all respects be levied, assessed or collected and paid as if this Act had never been passed.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed, in any way, to affect the date of finality or the taxable year for the levying and collection of ordinary state taxes.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1941.
