

not less than Five Dollars nor more than One Hundred Dollars or imprisonment in the County Jail not exceeding thirty days or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

309A. The owner of any property in Baltimore County on which a cesspool is located shall be responsible for maintaining such cesspool so that there shall be no overflow of the fluid or other contents therefrom on, to, in or upon surrounding ground, streets or streams.

When any such condition shall be found to exist it shall be the duty of the County Health Officer to notify such owner that a state of nuisance exists on such property and that correction and cessation thereof must be made within such time as such notice shall specify. Any person or persons failing to comply with such notification within such time as may be limited therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, subjected to a fine of not less than Five Dollars and not more than Twenty-Five Dollars for each day such nuisance may continue after the time limited for the cessation thereof in such notice.

312A. No person or persons having a cow or cows, horse or horses, dogs, cats or other domestic or wild animals, or fowl of any kind, in any stable or outbuilding within Baltimore County shall keep the same in such a manner that the filth and stench therefrom is offensive to any neighbor or other person, and any person who shall continue to keep the same in such manner after notification by the County Health Officer to correct the condition, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Five Dollars and not more than Twenty-five Dollars for each day that said nuisance shall be continued after the expiration of the notice from the County Health Officer as aforesaid.

313A. No person shall throw or deposit any dirt, trash, household waste, refuse, debris or any other matter on any vacant lot or tract of land in Baltimore County. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subjected to a fine of not less than Ten Dollars nor more than One Hundred Dollars and in addition shall be required to remove any such trash, dirt, household waste, refuse, debris or other matter at their own expense.

313B. Whenever any vacant lot or tract of land in Baltimore County shall become a public nuisance or a menace to the health and safety of the neighborhood by reason of the existence thereon of a heavy growth of weeds or grass, stagnant pools of water or decaying matter, the County Health
