Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to prohibit a farmer from spreading or permitting to be spread upon land which he cultivates, or which is cultivated, manure or fertilizer for the purpose of enriching the soil for the cultivation of crops, without the necessity of obtaining a permit therefor from the County Health Officer; provided, however, that should at any time in the judgment of the County Health Officer such use constitute a public nuisance, the County Health Officer shall have the right to order cessation of the same, upon the same penalties for refusal to comply with such order as herein provided for by persons refusing to obtain a permit. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, be subjected to a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars nor more than Five Hundred Dollars and each day's violation of the provisions hereof shall be considered a separate offense.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved April 23, 1941.
