

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to make use of a dog in hunting elk or deer and every person who takes a dog into the woods or who has possession or control of a dog in the woods and uses same for chasing, taking or killing an elk or deer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any dog or dogs found pursuing any deer or elk may be killed by any Deputy Game Warden of this State or any other person.

(c) It shall be unlawful to set, lay or use any trap, snare, net, deerlick, or pitfall, or to make use of any artificial light, battery, or other contrivance or device for the purpose of hunting or killing of elk or deer except as permitted by law.

(d) It shall be unlawful to remove the head or hide or any part thereof from an elk or deer, or possess, or cut the meat into parts or possess the same; or parts thereof until it has been checked by a deputy game warden or a State Police. Any deer or elk, or parts thereof, the sex of which cannot be definitely determined shall be prima facie evidence that said deer or elk is an illegal deer or elk. Each separate deer or elk, part or parts thereof, taken illegally or found in possession shall for the purpose of this Section be considered a separate offense.

(e) Any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of this State shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and costs for each and every offense. Any person who fails to pay the fine so imposed shall stand committed to jail until the fine and costs shall have been paid but such imprisonment shall not exceed ninety days for any one offense. Provided, however, any person killing an elk or deer and not reporting the kill to the State Game Warden as provided herein shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace of this State shall be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each and every offense.

TRAPPING PERMITS.

84. For the purpose of propagating game birds and game animals and the restocking of the covers of this State, the Game Warden is hereby authorized, when he deems it advisable, to issue permits to any person to trap game on property owned or acquired by the State of Maryland or controlled by the Game and Inland Fish Commission, or on any property where permission may be procured from private owners.
