

greater frequency than prescribed by the approved schedule without obtaining permission therefor from the Public Service Commission, provided, however, that the approved schedule shall be strictly maintained and adhered to, until changed with the permission of the Public Service Commission, and provided further, that whenever the operations conducted are in excess of those prescribed by the approved schedule, the motor vehicle owner shall report to the Public Service Commission, on or before the fifth business day of the succeeding month, the actual number of miles traveled, and the license number of the motor vehicles operated upon each route for the preceding calendar month, and shall, at the same time send a duplicate of said report to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and pay to the said Commissioner the difference between the fee charged on the basis of the approved schedule and the fee chargeable upon the basis of the actual number of seat-miles traveled; and provided, further, whenever, in the opinion of the Public Service Commission, it will be prejudicial to the public welfare and convenience, to permit operations to be conducted upon any route with greater frequency than prescribed by the approved schedule, said Commission may limit this privilege in whatever manner it may deem proper or deny the said privilege altogether, either at the time of the issuance of the permit or at any time thereafter. Seasonal permits may be granted for a portion of the year, if, in the judgment of the Public Service Commission, the granting thereof is deemed essential to the public welfare and convenience, and routes may be changed or abandoned, whenever, in the opinion of the Public Service Commission, the welfare and convenience of the public will not be prejudiced thereby. In the event any such motor vehicle owner shall fail to report excess mileage and other information, as above provided, or shall change or abandon a route or reduce a schedule, without first obtaining the permission of the Public Service Commission, or shall operate with greater frequency than prescribed by his approved schedule, where the privilege so to do has been denied or limited, the Public Service Commission may, after due hearing, upon not less than three days' notice in writing, to be sent by registered letter to the address given by the motor vehicle owner when applying for his permit, revoke or suspend all permits issued to such motor vehicle owner under the provisions of this sub-title, and refuse thereafter to issue such permits to said motor vehicle owner. Upon the suspension or revocation of a permit by the Public Service Commission, all certificates of registration issued to such motor vehicle owner by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall thereupon be likewise suspended or revoked.
