(h) Storage. No license shall be required of a person to operate a public warehouse where alcoholic beverages are stored for the accounts of other persons, or to transport alcoholic beverages into, within, or out of the State of Maryland; but the Comptroller shall issue a permit at an annual fee of $5.00 to such persons for the transaction of such business under such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary.

(i) Import and Export. No license shall be required for the importation of alcoholic beverages intended for export beyond the territorial limits of this State, provided such alcoholic beverages are stored in public and government controlled warehouses and not for sale and delivery within this State, but the Comptroller shall require any such importer to obtain a permit at an annual fee of $5.00 for the transaction of such business under such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary.

(j) Non-Resident Dealer. A non-resident manufacturer or dealer in alcoholic beverages may sell and deliver alcoholic beverages from a location outside Maryland without a license to any non-beverage permit holder or to any duly licensed manufacturer or wholesaler, but not to any other license holder in this State or to any other person in this State except as further provided in this Article; however, such non-resident manufacturer or dealer shall, before consigning any alcoholic beverages into Maryland, apply for and obtain a permit issued by the Comptroller at an annual fee of $5.00 under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.

(k) Permits. A permit may be required of any resident or non-resident person for the privilege of selling or offering for sale wines or liquors to manufacturers, wholesalers or retailers in this State. Such a person shall not contact consumers, and where the person is employed by a non-resident dealer, he shall not be permitted to sell, promote or offer for sale beer, wine or liquor to retail dealers except for the account of a Maryland wholesaler or manufacturer who is a distributor for the products of the dealer who is the employer of such person. Such a permit may be issued by the Comptroller at an annual fee of $5.00 and be subject to such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.

(l) Planes and Ships. No license shall be required of transport planes furnished with a cocktail lounge, or ships carrying passengers or cargo to a foreign port, to purchase alcoholic beverages from wholesalers or manufacturers provided satisfactory proof in writing is furnished that such bev-
