

conviction is not the owner of a motor vehicle but was at the time of such conviction a chauffeur or motor vehicle operator, however designated, in the employ of an owner of a motor vehicle or a member of the immediate family or household of the owner of a motor vehicle, the Department shall accept proof of financial responsibility given by such owner in lieu of proof given by such other person so long as such latter person is operating a motor vehicle for which the owner has given proof as herein provided. The Department shall designate the restrictions imposed by this section on the face of such person's operator's or chauffeur's license. No such license shall be reinstated or any new license issued until otherwise permitted under the laws of this State.

120. RESTRICTIONS IN OPERATING MOTOER VEHICLES WHEN PROOF OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY HAS BEEN FILED. (a) When proof of financial responsibility is required under Sections 109 and 110 of this Article, and such proof is filed with and accepted by the Department, applying to motor vehicles owned by the person filing the said proof, it shall be unlawful for such person to operate any other motor vehicle within this State, unless or until such other vehicle be specifically designated or appropriately referred to in the proof filed. The Department shall endorse notice of such restriction upon the operator's or chauffeur's license of such person. Violation of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine of ten dollars ($10.00) to one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) Such operator or chauffeur so restricted may have such restriction removed by filing proof of financial responsibility as required by this Article by means of an operator's policy of insurance, insuring such operator or chauffeur while operating any motor vehicle.

121. OPERATOR'S INSURANCE POLICY. When the person required to give proof of financial responsibility is not the owner of a motor vehicle, such person may give proof of financial responsibility as required by this Article by means of an operator's policy of insurance, insuring such person in the operation of any motor vehicle.

122. CERTIFICATE FURNISHED BY NONRESIDENT. (a) The nonresident owner of a foreign vehicle may give proof of financial responsibility by filing with the Department a written certificate or certificates of an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in the State in which the motor vehicle or motor vehicles described in such certificate is registered or if such nonresident does not own a motor vehicle then in the
