

outstanding or so long as any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are outstanding, to annually levy a tax on every $100 worth of assessable property in the City of Westminster in such amount as may be necessary to so supplement the "Water Fund" as to meet, when due and payable, the interest on all such bonds and to redeem at maturity all such bonds in the full principal amount thereof.

SEC. 9. Whenever any charge for water supplied from the said water system shall be and remain in arrears for a period of thirty (30) days after the same shall have become due and payable or whenever the occupant of any premises to which water is being supplied from the said system shall violate any of the rules or regulations under which the said water is supplied, the said The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster may, in its discretion, cut off the water supply from such premises after they shall have given the occupant of such premises five (5) days' notice in writing of its intention so to do. All charges for water supplied to any premises shall be a lien upon such premises until such charge, with whatever interest may have accrued thereon, shall have been satisfied in full to the same extent and to be collectible in the same manner as arrearages of taxes are collectible in the City of Westminster.

SEC. 10. In addition to the powers expressly conferred by this Act, The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster shall have such other powers as are incident to, or a necessary consequence of such expressly conferred powers, which other powers shall include the right to pass all ordinances not inconsistent with the powers granted by this Act as may be deemed necessary for the proper operation, preservation and protection of said water system and to attach reasonable penalties to the ordinances of The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster for the violation thereof; to formulate, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations necessary for the proper conduct of the said water system; and from time to time to repeal, alter or amend such ordinances, rules and regulations.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the bonds issued thereunder, are hereby specifically exempted from the provisions of Sections 33-36, inclusive, of Article 31 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), and that all laws, or parts of laws, both public general and public local, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That if any section, clause or provision of this Act shall be found to be unconstitutional or in conflict with any other section, clause or pro-
