

reside therein during his or her term of office, shall be the owner of real estate within said town of Vienna, and the Chairman shall receive two dollars and a half ($2.50) and the other members two dollars ($2.00) each for each official meeting of said Commissioners actually attended. Any person possessing the within stated qualifications and desiring to become a candidate for election as such Commissioners, may do so by filing with the Clerk to the Commissioners of Vienna, in writing, notice of his candidacy, for election as such Commissioner, and such written notice of candidacy shall be so filed at least ten days prior to the date for such election. Any person desiring to withdraw from candidacy for election as such Commissioner, after filing written notice as aforesaid, may do so at any time prior to five days before the date for such election, after which time no further withdrawals shall be permitted. In filing written notice of candidacy as above required, it shall be sufficient to set out the name of the candidate filing, together with the period of residence and fact of owning real estate in the town of Vienna of such candidate, as well as the office to which said candidate desires to be elected. The Clerk to the Commissioners of Vienna shall from the certificates of candidacy filed and not withdrawn prior to five days before the date of such election, have ballots printed for use in such election and these shall be the official ballots and the only ballots recognized at such election. The form and arrangement of said ballots shall contain the name of every candidate who shall have filed written notice of his or her candidacy as herein provided; no ballot shall contain the name of any political party, organization or association; the names of all candidates shall be arranged alphabetically according to their surname; above the group of names of candidates shall be a line designating the office to be filled, and between such line designating the office to be filled and the group of names of candidates shall be printed in bold, plain, roman capitals, twelve point (pica) type, appropriate instructions to the voter informing him or her of the number of persons for whom the voter may lawfully vote at such election, thus "Vote for One", or "Vote for Five". To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, opposite the name and in line therewith, shall be a square so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) his or her choice of candidate. If at any election there be any question to be submitted to the popular vote, the said question shall be briefly explained upon said ballot and the words "For Proposition" and "Against Proposition" shall be placed thereunder so that the voter may clearly indicate in the manner hereinbefore pointed out, whether the voter may wish his or her ballot cast for or against the proposition sub-