

collection of garbage, trash, ashes and other offal, shall collect all such matter accumulating on his, their, or its premises into suitable receptacles. Garbage and other offal, trash, and ashes shall each be placed in separate secure receptacles, covered with a lid, except that in lieu of placing trash in a container it may be securely tied in bundles which can be readily handled. All of said receptacles and/or trash bundles shall be put in a place convenient to the removers of garbage, trash, ashes, and other offal, and any person, firm or corporation who shall allow garbage, trash, ashes, or other offal, to accumulate on his, their or its premises, without collecting and placing it as aforesaid, after receiving notice from the county or district health officer so to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than One Dollar, nor more than Twenty-five Dollars.

In the event that any person, firm or corporation shall have for removal such amount of garbage, trash, ashes, or other offal, as will, in the opinion of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, unduly burden the trash and/or garbage collection service of Baltimore County, then and in that event the County Commissioners, by notice in writing addressed to said person, firm or corporation, may require said person, firm or corporation to arrange for disposition of said garbage, trash, ashes, or other offal, at his, their or its own expense, and without the aid of the County trash and/or garbage collection facilities. Said notice and order may be rescinded at any time by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, if the condition necessitating same is deemed in its opinion no longer to exist.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any part of this Act, or the application thereof to any person, firm or corporation, or circumstances, be held invalid, the remainder of this Act shall stand notwithstanding, and it shall apply to other persons, firms, corporations and circumstances.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.
