

make, ordain and establish such constitution, by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, and the same to amend and alter, as from time to time they may deem necessary or convenient for conducting the affairs of the said corporation. CHAP. 169.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at all times hereafter, when any vacancies shall happen among the said trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, as herein provided, the surviving or remaining trustees, or a quorum of them, may proceed to elect, by ballot, other competent, judicious and discreet persons, to be trustees, to supply such vacancies, and that no person shall retain the office of trustee, or be eligible thereto, who is not a member in good standing of some christian church, any five of which said trustees, if there be so many of them in office, shall constitute a quorum thereof. Vacancies—how filled.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage, and that the State of Maryland shall have full power at any time to alter or repeal the same. In force.

CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT to repeal the one hundred and ninety-third section, chapter fourteen, of the Public Local Law of Kent county. Passed March 6, 1860.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and ninety-three, chapter fourteen, of the Public Local Law of Kent county, be repealed, and the following enacted as a substitute: Repealed.

SEC. 2. The sheriff of said county shall be entitled to a sum not exceeding fifty cents a day for each State prisoner confined in jail. Prisoner's board.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage. In force.