

CHAP. 248. SEC. 21. It shall be the duty of the several inspectors, when required by the owner or agent, to draw samples of the tobacco inspected by them; which sample shall consist of not less than five bundles of the average quality of the tobacco in the hogshead from which they are drawn, and he shall deliver the said samples to the lessee of the warehouse of which he is inspector, to be dealt with as directed in the next succeeding section.

Samples—
how dealt
with. SEC. 22. It shall be the duty of each lessee, and he is hereby required to confine the samples of each hogshead delivered to him by the inspector, separately, by tying them together with a strong tape, run through the head of said samples in such manner as may appear to him most likely to prevent the bundle from separating; and the lessee shall confine on the said sample so united together a slip of pasteboard, and seal the said tape and pasteboard with sealing wax, and impress the said wax with the stamp of the inspector, so that the name of the inspection where the tobacco is inspected shall be legible on the wax; and it shall also be the duty of the lessee to write on the said pasteboard the number of the hogshead from which the sample shall have been drawn, the name of the owner thereof and the name of the said inspector; and when required to do so by the owner or his agent, the inspector shall draw and deliver and the lessee shall tie, and seal, and mark duplicate samples, and each lessee shall be entitled to five cents for each sample so tied, sealed and marked by him, to be paid on the delivery of the tobacco from which the same shall have been drawn.

Inspectors'
certificates. SEC. 23. The inspector who shall pass any tobacco, he shall certify the same to the lessee of the warehouse in which the same is stored, stating in such certificate, the warehouse, gross, tare and nett weight, and the quality, whether first or second, the first to consist of tobacco clear of and unmixed with trash; and upon the receipt of such certificate the lessee of such warehouse shall deliver as many notes under his hand to the owner as shall be required, expressing therein the place and time of reception of such tobacco, the mark and the matters hereinbefore required to be set forth in the inspector's certificates.

Hogsheads to be marked. SEC. 24. The several inspectors shall, when the tobacco by them inspected shall not be clear of
