CHAPTER 385.

Passed March 5, 1860. AN ACT for the establishment of the southeastern and northwestern boundary lines between this State, and the State of Virginia, and making further appropriation to complete the survey and marking of the same.

Boundary. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the line established by the agreement of the commissioners authorised in the year sixteen hundred and sixty-eight, to fix the bounds of Virginia and Maryland, is hereby declared to be the true line of boundary between the two States on the Eastern Shore of Chesapeake bay, and that the true divisional line across Chesapeake bay, is a straight line from Smith's point, at the mouth of the Potomac, to the southernmost angle of the body of land defined by the aforesaid commissioner as Watkins' point.

Northwestern line. SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the northwestern line of this State, is a line commencing at the Fairfax stone, at the head of the north branch of the Potomac river, and running thence due north to the southern line of the State of Pennsylvania, as surveyed in the year, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, by the commissioners appointed by the State of Maryland and Virginia in conformity with the laws passed by the said States for that purpose.

Appropriation. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appro-
