

the rate of six per cent. per annum shall be paid on such amounts refunded accounting from the date the taxes, fees, charges, penalties or interest so refunded were paid, but interest shall not be paid on tax refunds now pending or subsequently filed where the tax originally paid was paid in whole or in part by reason of a mistake or error on the part of the taxpayer and not attributable to the State or any department or agency thereof. If any portion of the special taxes for which a refund is allowed were paid to any county or city of this State, the Comptroller shall charge a proportionate part of the refund and interest against such county or city and deduct the same from subsequent payments of the shares of such special taxes to such county or city. If no funds are available for the payment of such part of such allowed claim for refund and interest as is payable by the State, the Comptroller shall certify the same to the Governor for inclusion in the next budget.
