

The Board of Supervisors of Elections of the various counties of the State, within the amounts authorized by the County Commissioners of each County, shall have power to fix the compensation of judges and clerks of election or registration, which compensation shall be paid by the respective County Commissioners of each County, and shall not be less than seven dollars per day, nor more than twenty dollars per day for each day actually served.

9. It shall be the duty of the respective Board of Supervisors to appoint and to provide for furnishing, heating, lighting and cleaning, a suitable place of registration and polling place in each precinct of their county or city, which shall be as near the center of the voting population of the precinct as practicable; provided, however, that whenever all three Supervisors of the said county or city, as the case may be, shall file in their office a sworn statement in writing that a suitable place cannot in their judgment be secured in any precinct, a suitable place in an adjoining precinct may be provided; in no case shall a registration or election be held in any building or part of any building used or occupied as a saloon, dramshop, poolroom, billiard hall or bowling alley, or communicating therewith by doors or hallways. In Baltimore City and in any county now or hereafter providing for a permanent board of registration, no places of registration need be provided in the respective precincts of said city or county, but all matters of registration may be conducted in the office of the Board of Supervisors of Elections. It shall be the duty of each Board of Supervisors of Elections to use, wherever possible and practicable, public buildings, such as school-houses and fire-engine houses, for registration and polling places; and it shall be the duty of all public officials having charge of such buildings to place them at the disposal of said Boards of Supervisors on days of registration and elections when application for their use is made by said Boards of Supervisors. In Allegany County during the hours of balloting in any primary or general election, the illumination on the shelf in each voting booth shall be not less than five-foot candles of light and shall be by electricity where available.

10. The Board of Supervisors in each county shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of all elections in each precinct of such county, by advertisements in two newspapers of general circulation published in said county (one of which newspapers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of the Board of Supervisors) and, in the discretion of the Board, by handbills set up in such public places in each precinct as the Board may determine. In Baltimore City, such notice shall be given by advertisement in all the daily newspapers which will publish the same at their current
