

said resolution, publish a brief summary of said notice which summary need not contain all the information required by law to be contained in said notice but which shall state where interested parties may obtain a complete copy thereof.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the money so borrowed or the indebtedness incurred, in evidence of which said bonds shall be issued, shall be used by the County exclusively and solely for the public facility or facilities described in said resolution, and in the event the amounts so borrowed shall prove inadequate for the financing of any such public facility, at any time, the County may issue additional obligations for the purpose of evidencing the borrowing of additional funds for any such public facility, but if the funds derived from the sale of any issue of any such bonds shall exceed the amount needed to finance the public facility described in said resolution, the excess funds so borrowed may be set apart by the County and applied in payment of the first principal maturity of the obligations so issued or to the redemption of any part of said bonds, if the same shall have been made redeemable by any such resolution, but said excess funds shall in no event be used for any other County function nor for any other public facility except upon the adoption by the Board of County Commissioners of a special resolution to that effect.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized shall constitute, and they shall so recite, an irrevocable pledge of the full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of the County to the payment of the maturing principal and interest of such bonds as and when the same respectively mature. In each and every fiscal year that any of said bonds are outstanding, the County shall levy or cause to be levied ad valorem taxes upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the County in rate and amount sufficient to provide for the payment, when due, of the interest and principal of all said bonds maturing in each such fiscal year and in the event the proceeds from the taxes so levied in any such fiscal year shall prove inadequate for the above purposes, additional taxes shall be levied in the succeeding fiscal year to make up any such deficiency. The County may apply to the payment of principal and interest of any bonds issued for one of the above defined public facilities, any funds received by it from the State of Maryland, the United States of America, any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from any other source, if such funds are granted for the purpose of assisting the County in obtaining any such public facility, and to the extent of any
