

following the date of filing such application, on an ordinary disability retirement allowance, provided that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired for the good of the Department.

ALLOWANCE ON ORDINARY DISABILITY RETIREMENT

(4) Upon retirement for ordinary disability a member shall receive a service retirement allowance if he has attained the age of 55, otherwise he shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) A pension which, together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to ninety per centum of one-fiftieth of his average final compensation for each of the first twenty-five years of creditable service and one-sixtieth of his average final compensation for each year after the first twenty-five years of creditable service, if such service retirement allowance exceeds one-quarter of his average final compensation; otherwise a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-quarter of his average final compensation, provided, however, that no such allowance shall exceed ninety per centum of one-fiftieth of his average final compensation for each year of creditable service were his service to continue until the attainment of age 55.

SPECIAL DISABILITY BENEFIT

(5) Upon the application of a member in service, or of the head of his department, any member who has been totally and permanently incapacitated for duty arising out of or in the course of the actual performance of duty, without wilful negligence on his part, shall be retired by the Board of Trustees, provided that the Medical Board shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, that such incapacity arose out of or was sustained in the course of the actual performance of duty without wilful negligence on the part of the member concerned, and that such member should be retired. No beneficiary entitled to a special disability retirement allowance shall receive any allowance on account of ordinary disability.
