

and imposed upon him. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided in the State budget, and shall be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties. He shall hold at least a valid private pilot's license.

(2) (Director—Powers and Duties.) The Director shall be the executive officer of the Commission and under its supervision shall administer the provisions of this Article, and the rules, regulations, and orders established thereunder, and all other laws of the State relative to aeronautics. He shall attend, but not vote at, the meetings of the Commission. He shall be in charge of the offices of the Commission and responsible to the Commission for the preparation of reports and collection and dissemination of data and other public information relating to aeronautics. At the direction of the Commission, he shall, together with the Chairman of the Commission, execute all contracts entered into by the Commission which are legally authorized.

(3) (Director—Delegation of Powers to.) The Commission may, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the Director any of the ministerial powers or duties vested in or imposed upon it by this Article. Such delegated powers or duties may be exercised by the Director in the name of the Commission. The Director shall be removable from said office at the discretion of the Commission for malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance, said removal to be determined by a majority vote of the members of the Commission.

(4) (Other Employees—Appointments.) The Director shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Commission, such experts, field and office assistants, clerks, and other employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge and the functions of the Commission. The salaries or compensation of such experts, field and office assistants, clerks, and other employees shall be as provided in the State budget.

(c) (Attorney — Appointment of.) The Attorney General of Maryland shall be the legal adviser and representative of the Commission and shall represent the Commission in all actions in law and in equity relating to or concerning the activities of the Commission in the courts of this State, any other State, or in any court of the United States of America.

(d) (Commission Organization, Meetings, Reports.) The Commission is authorized to make such rules and regulations for its administration not inconsistent herewith as it may deem expedient and may from time to time amend such rules and regulations. The Commission shall maintain a regular