

- CHAP. 34. directions prescribed by the preceding section of this act, as to the dockets returned by said judges.
- Where judgments have been rendered, single justice to issue SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in all cases where judgments may have been rendered by said courts, a single justice shall issue upon the same, when required, just as the magistrates' courts could have done prior to this act, and be governed by the same rules that governed them; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to furnish a copy of any judgments necessary to be issued upon, when required so to do.
- Right to appeal SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That upon all judgments that may be rendered by said magistrates' courts, prior to this law going into effect, the right of appeal shall be secured to either party, according to the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-five, and the several supplements thereto, establishing magistrates' courts in the several counties of this State.
- To be published SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act [] in some newspaper in Montgomery county, for two successive weeks, before the first of July.

CHAPTER 34.

Passed April 6, 1841. A further supplement to an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter twenty-one, entitled an act to abolish the Levy Court of Anne Arundel County, and for other purposes.

- Preamble WHEREAS, since the passage of the original supplement of the act of Assembly, to the act to which this is a further supplement, an additional election district has been laid off in Anne Arundel county, and no provision has been made for the election of a commissioner for said election district—therefore,
- Commissioner resident 8th district to be elected in October Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That at the next October election, the voters of the several districts of Anne Arundel county, belonging to districts number one, two, three, four, seven and eight, shall elect one person, a resident of the eighth district of Anne Arundel county, and who shall have the same qualifications as are required for members of the General Assembly, and shall continue in office until the year eighteen hundred and forty-four; and the said commissioner shall have the same powers, and perform the same duties as are or may be required of the other commissioners for Anne Arundel county, and
- Term of office