

road, and to cause the same to be surveyed, and a plat thereof, and of the valuation and condemnation of lands as aforesaid, and the expenses attending the execution of the act, to be returned to the levy court of Prince George's county, and any person conceiving himself aggrieved by the proceedings and return of the commissioners, may object to the ratification thereof, before the said levy court, and when finally ratified by the court, it shall be filed and recorded among the public records of the county. CHAP. 229.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said levy court, shall after said ratification, levy a sum or sums of money sufficient to defray all said expenses, and to pay to the owners of said lands, the amount awarded to them respectively by said commissioners, and from and after said levy, the road that may be located as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as a public road, and kept at the expense of the county. Public road.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall take an oath that they will well and faithfully execute the provisions of this act, and shall be entitled to receive two dollars for every day that they may attend in the execution of this act, and shall give at least ten days notice to the proprietors of the land along the rout herein indicated, before they proceed to act. Oath.

CHAPTER 229.

An act for the regulation of the inspection of Tobacco, in Prince Georges County. Passed March 7, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the levy court of said county annually, before the first day of February, to recommend one suitable person to the governor for the office of inspector of Tobacco, at each of the warehouses in said county to be nominated to the senate, and if confirmed shall be commissioned as such, and before any person appointed inspector shall act as such, he shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with security to be approved by the said court, in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for his faithful performance of the office of inspector, and of the duties imposed on him by law, and shall make oath or affirmation well and truly to perform and execute his said office of inspector according to law, and the said bonds shall be recorded in the clerks office of said county, and may be put in suit for the use of the county, and an office copy of said bond shall be evidence in any court. Levy court to recommend.