

CHAPTER 108.

CHAP. 110.

An act relating to Surveys.

Passed Feb
17, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Warrant of re-That from and after the passage of this act, any warrant of survey may resurvey issued from any of the courts of this State, may be executed be executed after ten days notice to the parties in the cause after ten days or their counsel of record, unless such notice be waived by notice consent, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 109.

An act relating to Sheriffs.

Passed Feb
17, 1842.

WHEREAS, it often happens that in many of the counties Preamble. there is no coroner, by reason whereof the sheriff cannot be sued during his term—therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, If there is no That in all cases where there is no coroner in a county it coroner, the may be lawful for the plaintiff to file his declaration against plaintiff to set the sheriff, and his securities, or against the person who is up claim at for the time the sheriff when the suit is against him on his court house individual account, and having a copy thereof set up at the door ten days court house door, at least ten days before the sitting of before meet-the county court, and if no appearance by the defendants ing of court. before the first three days of the term, then judgment shall be entered up against them; provided, that the plaintiff shall make Proviso. affidavit of the truth of the demand; and if the State shall be the plaintiff in its own right, then that a statement of the treasurer, in his own hand writing shall be evidence of the amount due the State, but that no execution shall issue on such judgment, until twelve months after said third day of the term.

CHAPTER 110.

An act to divorce Jane Abell, of the City of Baltimore, Passed Feb from her husband Benjamin H. Abell. 18, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Divorced.
That Jane Abell, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband Benjamin H. Abell, a vinculo matrimonii.