CHAPTER 235.

Passed March 4, 1843.

An act for the benefit of Daniel Hauer, of Washington county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears to this general assembly that an error was committed in a patent issued out of the land office of the Western Shore, to William Chaney, for a tract of land called Addition to Locust Swamp, lying in Washington county, and bearing date the eleventh day of April seventeen hundred and eighty-five, where the fourth course in said patent was made to run an east instead of a west course, and whereas it is right and proper that said patent should be so corrected as to correspond with the original certificate and record thereof.

Register to amend patent and office record.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land office for the Western Shore, be and he is hereby required, so to amend the said patent, and also his office record of the same, for the tract called Addition to Locust Swamp, as to make the fourth course read south eighty-one degrees west, instead of south eighty one degrees east, as it at present reads; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall effect the rights of any other person, which shall be vested at the passage of this act.

Proviso.
