

1843. FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP 7.

CHAPTER 6.

Passed Jan. 4, 1844. An act for the benefit of the heirs of Thomas H. Marshall, late of Charles County, deceased.

Court empowered.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Orphan's Court of Charles county, be and are hereby authorised and empowered to allow, the administrator or administrators of Thomas H. Marshall, late of said county, to keep together, manage and cultivate the estate of the said Thomas H. Marshall, deceased, until the debts are paid or so long as said court may deem proper, if in their judgement they shall believe such management of the estate will be beneficial to the heirs of the said deceased, and not injurious to the rights of creditors—and the court shall also have power to revoke this permission at any time it may deem proper, provided that the said administrator or administrators, as the case may be, give bond to the State of Maryland, in a penalty to be prescribed by, and with surety to be approved by the said orphans court, conditioned for the proper application by the said administrator or administrators, of the rents, issues and profits of said estate.
