

CHAP. 118 road crosses Collier's run, be, and the same is hereby vacated.

Commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That Henry A. Jamison, Henry Smith, Jesse Chapman, Razen Beall and Arthur Selby, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey, lay out and open by the best and most practicable route, a road not less than thirty feet in width, commencing at a point at or near the Pleasant Grove Meeting House, on the turnpike road five and one half miles east of Cumberland, and running thence in a south easterly direction until it intersects the William's road, at or near Hurley's Steam Saw Mill, and the said commissioners shall cause the said road to be surveyed, and a plat thereof made out, and returned to the office of the clerk of Allegany county, who is hereby required to record the same among the records of his office.

Ascertain damages.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall value and ascertain the damages that may be sustained by any person or persons, through whose land the said road may be made to pass, taking into consideration the advantages, if any, and the damages sustained, as well as the expenses of surveying, laying out, and opening said road, shall be levied, assessed and paid as other county charges in said county are levied, assessed and paid.

Two dollars per day.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall be allowed the sum of two dollars per day, respectively, for their services in laying out and opening said road; and that they shall respectively before they proceed, to act, take an oath, or make affirmation, before some justice of the peace of said county that they will without favour, partiality or prejudice, assess the damages sustained by the persons through whose land the said road may pass.

Deemed a public road.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said road, when so laid out and opened, shall be deemed thereafter to be a public road forever, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as other public roads are directed to be kept in repair in said county.

CHAPTER 118.

Passed Feb. 1, 1844.

An act to authorize William Ireland, former Collector of Calvert County, further time to complete his Collections.

Time allowed.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Ireland, former collector of