

CHAP. 30.

CHAPTER 29.

Passed Jan 29, 1839, An act for the relief of John T. Holtzman, of Prince George's County.

May introduce a slave

Proviso

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John T. Holtzman, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to bring into this State, and hold as a slave, negro Kitty Robinson; Provided, the said John T. Holtzman, within sixty days from the passage of this law shall file with the Clerk of Prince George's county, a description of such slave, stating her age, with an affidavit thereto annexed, stating that the same is a true and faithful description of such negro and that she is not removed into this State for the purpose of sale and that she is a slave for life; And provided also, the said John T. Holtzman shall pay over to the Clerk of Prince George's county court, fifteen dollars for the use of the Colonization Society of the State as required by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty three, chapter eighty seven.

CHAPTER 30.

Passed Jan. 21, 1839, A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for electing Commissioners for Washington county, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed at December session Eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty one.

Preamble

WHEREAS, no provision is made in the law passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty one, giving to the people of Washington county the right to choose their county commissioners by ballot, to determine in case of tie between two or more of the candidates for the said office of county commissioner; And whereas, it appears from the returns of the judges of election for Washington county, that at the last October election there was a tie between two of the candidates for said office of county commissioner in the Boonsborough or sixth election district in said county;—Therefore,
