

assign his duties, and to allow him a salary not exceeding twenty dollars, and it shall be the duty of the said clerk to record in a book to be kept by him for that purpose all ordinances passed by the said commissioners, the said book to be open at all times for the inspection of the citizens of said town, and copies of all ordinances shall be set up by the Burgess, in the most public places of said town, and no charge shall be made by the clerk for extracts of said ordinances given by him to the citizens of said town, when required.

CHAP. 418.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the Burgess, shall have all the power and authority of a justice of the peace, within the limits of said town, except in cases of small debts, and shall be entitled to receive fees accordingly, and all fines, forfeitures, or penalties under the ordinances of said corporation, shall be recovered before the said Burgess, or a justice of the peace residing within the limits of said town, in the same manner in which small debts are recovered by law.

Authority of Burgess

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall meet for the transaction of business, at least once every month, and of every such meeting at least ten days' public notice, shall be given by the Burgess, and three commissioners shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and if during the year for which they are elected, any of the five commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said town, or in any manner become incapable of acting as such, or neglect without sufficient excuse, attending the meeting of the commissioners, the commissioners shall fill the vacancy or vacancies so produced, by choosing and electing some person or persons, qualified as is hereinbefore directed, and such person, or persons, thus chosen, shall act as commissioner, or commissioners, until the next general election.

Commissioners to meet once a month

Notice thereof

Case of vacancy

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the lines, or limits of the said town of Westminster, incorporated by this act, shall be as follows, viz: beginning on the east at a stone planted near the Turnpike road, formerly a boundary stone of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and running northerly at right angles with the main street, or road, four hundred yards north of the street,

Lines and limits of the town