

CHAP. 8.

ered to complete his collections in said district, in the same manner that it would have been lawful for him to have done if the act erecting Carroll County had not been passed.

Powers granted

Sec. 2 And be it enacted, That Samuel Jordan, former collector of taxes, as aforesaid, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to collect any taxes or balance of taxes now remaining due to, and uncollected by him in the district aforesaid, in the same manner, and with the same power and privileges, as are allowed by the existing laws in said cases made and provided.

Affidavit required

Sec. 3 And be it enacted, That the aforesaid Samuel Jordan, shall in every instance before he may proceed to the aforesaid collection, make affidavit before some justice of the peace of Carroll County, that the same remains unpaid, and that he hath not received any security or satisfaction for the same or any part thereof, more than what credit or credits may be allowed thereon.

Limitation

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall not continue in force longer than one year from the date of the passage thereof.

CHAPTER 8.

Passed Jan. 15, 1839.

A supplement to an act, entitled an act to establish Magistrates' Courts in the several Counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, passed March, Eighteen hundred and thirty six, chapter two hundred and one.

Relating to fees—
Baltimore county

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of June next, the justices composing the district courts in each and every election district of Baltimore County, shall be entitled to their fees according to the provisions of the original act, to which this is a supplement, instead of their per diem allowances.

Repealing clause

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, repugnant to or inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.