CHAPTER 235.

An act to allow Samuel Jordan, further time to complete his collections. Passed Mar. 13, 1840

WHEREAS, Samuel Jordan, formerly of Baltimore county, but now of Carroll county, was appointed by the commissioners of Baltimore county, a collector of tax, in and for the sixth collection district of said county; and whereas, a part of said collection district has since been included in, and now constitutes a part of Carroll county; and whereas, some doubts exist as to the legal authority of said Jordan to complete his collections—therefore,

Preamble

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Samuel Jordan, collector as aforesaid, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to complete his collections in said district, in the same manner that it would have been lawful for him to have done, if the act creating Carroll county had not been passed.

Authorised to make collection

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That Samuel Jordan, former collector of taxes as aforesaid, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect any taxes or balance of taxes now remaining due to, and uncollected by him, in the district aforesaid, in the manner and with the same
