

CHAP. 142.

CHAPTER 141.

Passed Mar. 9, 1838. An act for the relief of Joseph Steele, and others.

Payment directed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of Baltimore county be, and he is hereby authorised and required to pay out of the treasury of Baltimore county, to Joseph Steele, chief district justice of the third election district in Baltimore county, to William Jameson, chief justice of the fourth election district, and William McIlvain, acting chief justice of the sixth election district, severally, or to their orders, such sums of money as may be due to them, and to Warner W. Warfield, Nicholas Dorsey, Mordecai G. Cockey and Jacob Kerlinger, for services rendered as district justices in and for Baltimore county, before the erection of Carroll county; provided, that the chief justices severally report to the commissioners of Baltimore county, on, or before the first day of June next, the claims due to their respective courts, properly authenticated.

Proviso

Levy directed

SEC. 2. And be it enacted That the commissioners of Baltimore county are hereby required to levy on the assessable property of Baltimore county a sum of money sufficient to pay the claims due to the said district justices, and all necessary expenses for collection thereof.

CHAPTER 142.

Passed Mar. 9, 1838. An act for the benefit of Alexander McComas, of Harford county.

Payment directed

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Alexander McComas, of Harford county, be, and he is hereby declared to be entitled to the same per diem pay that is usually allowed to bailiffs of Harford county court, for and during the time he attended the said court as bailiff, at the trial of the late Bank of Maryland civil and criminal causes removed from Baltimore to Harford county court, and such allowance be taxed by the clerk of said court as part of the costs in

As Bailiff