Regiment of artillery

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the first light brigade of Maryland volunteers may be, and they are hereby authorised to raise a regiment of artillery to be attached to, and form a part of said brigade, and the said regiment shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as the other regiments composing said brigade.

CHAPTER 350.

Passed-Mar. 27, 1838. An act for the relief of the heirs of Thomas Hilleary, late of Montgomery County, deceased.

Commissioners to divide

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the partition hertofore made, by virtue of commission issued out of the Chancery Court, for that purpose, to divide the lands and real estate of Thomas Hilleary, deceased, shall be as good and valid in law as if all the lands therein contained, and mentioned, had been owned and held by the said Thomas Hilleary in fee, and that the said commissioners return the same to Montgomery County Court, wherein such proceedings shall and may be had for the ratification and confirmation of the same, as if the said commission had originally issued from said county court.

Return directed

Court empowered

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the judges of Montgomery county court, have as full power and authority to hear and determine all questions arising upon said commission and return, as if said commission had originally been issued from said court, and all parties interested therein, feeling him, her, or themselves aggrieved, shall have the same right of appeal, as if the same had originated therein; provided always, that it shall be no objection to said partition that all the lands were not owned and held by the said Thomas Hilleary, in his own right, and in fee.

Appeal

New commission

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if, for any cause, the said county court, shall set aside the proceedings hertofore had, it shall be lawful for the said county court to order a new commission in the usual form, as if all the said lands lay in said county, and were owned in fee by said Thomas Hilleary, deceased; and the said
