CHAPTER 53.

An act to amend and reduce into one the act to Incorporate the American Life Insurance and Trust Company, and the several supplements thereto.

Passed Feb. 1,
1838

WHEREAS, the American Life Insurance and Trust Company, have represented to the legislature that it is desirable that the several laws constituting the present charter of the said company, omitting such provisions therein as have been already executed, should be consolidated into one act in order that the powers and duties of the said company may be more clearly understood, therefore,
