

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

No. 8

(House Joint Resolution 4)

House Joint Resolution on the death of the late William Curran.

WHEREAS, the late Hon. William Curran has died since the last session of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Curran, early in life, began taking an interest in government and in political affairs; and

WHEREAS, after studying law, he was engaged, for a while, in editorial work relating to legal and judicial questions; and

WHEREAS, during a busy, active and highly successful career in the practice of law, he did a great deal of reading in the field of government and the philosophy of political science and government; and

WHEREAS, during his busy life, he served as a member of the Board of Liquor License Commissioners of Baltimore City and as a member of the Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City; and

WHEREAS, he was elected a member of the Baltimore City Council and a member of the Maryland State Senate, in which positions he took an active interest in legislation; and

WHEREAS, he served for a period in the important position of Attorney General of the State; and

WHEREAS, during all of his busy adult life, he took an active interest in public and political affairs and was, for many years, one of the ablest political leaders in Baltimore City; and

WHEREAS, in all the positions to which he was elected or appointed, he served with great ability; and

WHEREAS, in his death, the City of Baltimore and the State of Maryland lost a competent and able citizen, who rendered outstanding service in public affairs as well as in political affairs; now, therefore, be it
