

shall have posted in one or more public places in each voting precinct an accurate sample copy of the ballot to be used in the next election.

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

66. For all primary, special, and regular city elections the polls shall remain open from 8:00 A. M. to 8:00 P. M. As soon as the polls have closed following any primary, special or regular city election, the judges of elections shall proceed to count the votes cast and shall report the results of the count to the Board of Supervisors of Elections before 12:00 noon on the Thursday next following the election.

CHALLENGERS AND WATCHERS

67. Any political party or any candidate whose name appears on the ballot and/or voting machine in any primary, special, or regular city election shall have the right to designate and keep one challenger and watcher at every polling place in such a position that he can see every person as he presents himself to vote. Any challenger and watcher may challenge any person's qualifications to vote. The right of any person so challenged to vote shall be decided by a majority of the judges of elections assigned to the polling places after hearing, under oath, the facts which may entitle the person so challenged to vote.

BOARD OF CANVASSERS

68. The Board of Supervisors of Elections shall act as a board of canvassers for all primary, special, and regular city elections. At some time between the hours of 12:00 noon and 1:00 P. M. on the Thursday next following the election, the board of canvassers shall convene and proceed to canvass the returns of the judges of elections from the several voting precincts of the city. The results of the canvass shall be certified by the board of canvassers to the city register and collector of taxes and to the board of aldermen, which shall have the results entered in its minutes. The city register and collector of taxes shall issue certificates of election to the candidates who, based on the results announced by the board of canvassers, have been elected to office in any city election.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS

69. All primary and special city elections shall be conducted by the Board of Supervisors of Elections in the
