

“Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility,” Section 119 thereof having been amended by Chapter 582 of the Acts of 1953, be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

116.

(a) Whenever the Department is required under any law of this State to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of any person upon receiving record of the conviction of such person for any offense under the motor vehicle laws of this State, the Department shall suspend any and all of the registration certificates or cards and registration plates issued for any motor vehicle registered in the name of the person so convicted as owner except that it shall not suspend such evidences of registration in the event such owner has previously given or shall immediately give and thereafter maintain [, for a period of three (3) years,] proof of financial responsibility in the manner specified by this Article with respect to each and every motor vehicle owned and registered by such person.

(b) The suspensions or revocations hereinbefore required shall remain in effect and the Department shall not issue to any such person any new license or any renewal of license or register or re-register in the name of such person any motor vehicle until permitted under the Motor Vehicle Laws of this State and not then unless and until said person gives proof of his continuing financial responsibility in future. If at any time in the future, any such person shall fail to retain adequate proof of financial responsibility by maintaining automobile liability and property damage insurance, as defined by Section 119 of this Article, the suspension or revocation of the license shall immediately again become effective and shall remain effective unless and until such person gives proof of his continuing financial responsibility in the future.

119. (Security Required Following Accident Unless Evidence of Insurance—Suspension for Failure to Deposit Security.) Within ninety days after the receipt of a report of a motor vehicle accident within this State which has resulted in bodily injury or death, or damage to the property of any one person in excess of $75., the Department shall suspend the license of each operator and all registrations of each owner of a motor vehicle in any manner involved in such accident, and if such operator is a non-resident the privilege of operating a motor vehicle within this State, and if such owner is a non-resident the privilege of the use within this State of any motor vehicle owned by him,
