

Liability:

341-76. No action shall be maintained and no claim shall be allowed against the city for damages for any injury or damage to persons or property unless, within sixty days after the injury or damages were sustained, written notice thereof setting forth the time, place, and cause of the alleged damage, loss, injury, or death shall be presented in person or by registered mail by the claimant, his agent or attorney, or in case of death, by his executor or administrator, to the Clerk-Treasurer of the city.

Misdemeanors:

341-77. Every act done or omission within the city designated as a misdemeanor in this charter, by the public general and public local laws as well or ordinances of the city, shall be punishable upon conviction before any trial magistrate or in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisonment for thirty days in the county jail, or both, in the discretion of the court or trial magistrate. All monies recovered by way of fines or penalties shall be the money of the City of Glen Burnie and the costs shall belong to Anne Arundel County. The party aggrieved shall have the right of appeal as is now provided under the general laws of the State. Where the act or omission is of a continuing nature and is persisted in, a conviction for a continuation of the offense subsequent to the first or any succeeding conviction shall be deemed separate and distinct offenses.

Effect of Charter on Existing Local Laws:

341-78. All public local laws in effect at the time this charter becomes effective, relating to or applicable to the City of Glen Burnie, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter shall remain in effect until changed or repealed by the General Assembly of Maryland or in the manner provided in Sections 341-69 through 341-73 of this charter.

All public local laws, or parts thereof, inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency. Nothing contained herein shall affect or restrict any control which the State Board of Health is empowered by law to exercise in any part of this State.
