

CHAPTER 313.

CHAP. 313.

A supplement to an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter two hundred and eighty-five, entitled, an act to regulate the charges for the use of Hackney Carriages in the City of Baltimore.

Passed March 10, 1845.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the proprietors of any hackney carriage in the city of Baltimore, who does not intend to go upon or use the public stands in said city with such hackney carriage, shall at the time of applying for a license for the same as required by the present, or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, signify in writing such intention, and thereupon a special license may and shall be granted to such proprietor, by the register or other proper officer of the said city. Special license granted.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for every special license granted by virtue of this act, there shall be paid such sum as is now or shall hereafter become payable for other hackney carriages, by the present or future ordinances of said city. Pay of license.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That no hackney carriage which shall be specially licensed under and by virtue of this act, shall make use of, or come upon, or stand or wait for employment at any of the public stands designated by or under the present, or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, or at any other place or places in said city, except the premises of the owner thereof, under a penalty of ten dollars, for every such offence, to be recovered against either the owner or driver thereof, recoverable as fines of a like amount are now recovered. Penalty, &c.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, which relate to the numbering of hackney carriages, so far as respects carriages specially licensed under this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the regulations in reference to hackney carriages contained in the act to which this is a supplement, or in the present or any future ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, excepting those in reference to numbering the same, be and the same are hereby extended to hackney carriages specially licensed under the provisions of this act. Extended.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That each and every proprietor of hackney carriages shall at the time when he
