CHAPTER 256.

Passed Feb. 27. 1846. An act explanatory of an act, for the relief of William James Scott, an infant of Baltimore County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an act, passed the tenth day of March, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and forty-three, entitled an act for the relief of William James Scott, an infant of Baltimore county, it is provided that all the right, title, and interest of the State of Maryland, of, in and to the lands of Thomas Scott, an alien, be released to the said Willam James Scott, only child of the said Thomas Scott; and it is further provided, that the Register of the Land Office issue a patent for said land, called Scott's Security, containing six acres and twenty perches, to the said William James Scott; and whereas, the said Thomas Scott, held only an undivided moiety as tenant, in common with William Scott, a naturalized citizen, in the said tract, and it is not explicitly declared by the said act, that the interest in said tract, released by the State of Maryland, and for which a patent was directed to be issued to the said William James Scott, was only an undivided moiety as aforesaid—therefore,

True intent and meaning.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the true intent and meaning of the act, of which this act is explanatory, was, that all the right, title and interest of the State of Maryland, of, in and to the lands of Thomas Scott, an alien, late of Baltimore county, deceased, being an undivided moiety, held by him in common with one William Scott, a naturalized citizen, in a certain tract of land, surveyed and descibed under a warrant of re-survey, dated the fifteenth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-two, and called Scott's Security, or to the valuation of said
