

CHAP. 257. Biscoe and Thomas Loker be, and they are hereby made and constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title of the Saint Mary's Female Seminary, and by that name, style and title, shall have continued succession, and shall be able and capable in law, to acquire property, real, personal and mixed, by gift, demise or purchase, and to hold, sell, dispose of and convey the same, and to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended in any court of law or equity, or other place whatsoever; and to have and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure; and to receive and make all deeds, transfers, contracts, covenants, conveyances and grants whatsoever; and generally, to do every other act and thing necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to promote the object and design of said corporation.

Right and privileges. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all the property, rights and privileges which vested in Cornelius Combs, Caleb W. Jones, which should have been Caleb M. Jones, and John W. Bennett, commissioners appointed by virtue of an act of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter one hundred and ninety, vest in the foregoing corporators, for the purposes declared in said act of Assembly, and their successors forever.

Majority to transact business. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That a majority of said corporators, as trustees, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, appertaining to the business of said corporation.

Fill vacancies. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case of the death, resignation or refusal to serve, of any one or more of said corporators, the board, or a majority of them, shall have power to fill such vacancy or vacancies.

Power to remove. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That said corporators shall have power and authority to remove any one of said board, by a vote of at least two-thirds; and the legislature hereby reserves to itself the right, to alter or repeal this act of incorporation at pleasure.
