

CHAPTER 328. CHAP. 329.

An act authorising the Levy Court of Caroline County, to give the collection of the County and State taxes to one collector, upon certain conditions. Passed March 9, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the levy court of Caroline county, and they are hereby required at the usual time of appointing a collector or collectors of the county and State taxes, to give the same to one collector; provided, one can be obtained who will collect the taxes for a commission not exceeding five per centum, to be collected and paid over as is now provided by law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in case a collector cannot be obtained under the provisions of this act, the levy court shall forthwith proceed to appoint a collector or collectors as is now or may be provided by law.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if a collector shall be appointed under the provisions of the first section of this act, he shall give good and sufficient bond in such penalty as is now provided by law for the faithful performance of his duty as collector, to be approved by the levy court.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case the levy court shall refuse or neglect to appoint a collector under the provisions of the first section of this act; provided, a collector can be obtained as therein specified, that then and in that case, the said levy court and each member thereof on conviction in the county court, shall forfeit and pay a sum of money not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be applied to the payment of the State debt.
