

CHAPTER 56.

CHAP. 57.

An act for the relief of John H. Berry, Junior, of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 7, 1846.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the General Preamble. Assembly, that John H. Berry, Junior, of the city of Baltimore, introduced into this State, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-three, a female slave for life by the name of Fanny, the gift of his father-in-law, Nathaniel West, of Virginia, and in the following year a male slave for life by the name of Jim, which came to him in a course of distribution in right of his wife; and it appearing that the said John H. Berry, Junior, omitted, through ignorance of the law, to comply with the various requisitions of the acts of assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty-seven, and eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter sixty-one—therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Remitted. That all forfeitures incurred, or which may be incurred by the said John H. Berry, junior, in consequence of his failure to comply with the requisitions and provisions of the said acts, be and they are hereby fully and absolutely remitted, and he shall be and remain in the same plight and condition as if the provisions of the said acts had been duly complied with; provided, he shall proceed. Proviso. within thirty days after the passage of this act to comply with the same.

CHAPTER 57.

An act in relation to the Primary School Fund standing to the credit of Calvert County, and for other purposes. Passed Feb. 11, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Treasurer authorised to sell Maryland, That the treasurer be, and he is hereby authorised and required, in such mode and at such time as to him may seem most advantageous, to sell or dispose of the bank stocks standing to the credit of the primary or free school fund of Calvert county, and to receive payment therefor in coupons or certificates for interest from this State, and to apply such coupons or certificates for interest to the payment of taxes due this State from Calvert county for the years eighteen hundred and forty-
