

dents of said school district, and a more central situation CHAP. 29.
is procurable—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry R. Harris, Notley T. Dutton, John A. Burroughs, James Burroughs, and Zephaniah Turner be, and are hereby appointed commissioners with full powers to sell and dispose of said school house and lot thereto belonging, on such terms, and in such manner, as to them or a majority of them, shall appear most advantageous, the proceeds whereof to be applied to purchase of such a lot in said school district, as they or a majority of them shall consider most suitable, and to the erection of a school house thereon.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid commissioners be, and are hereby authorised and empowered, to give a valid title by deed to the school house and lot herein before directed to be sold, and are also required to cause to be given to the present trustees of said school district, a good and sufficient title to such lot as they shall hereafter purchase in compliance with the terms of this act.

CHAPTER 29.

An act to provide for the removal of equity causes from the county courts of the Third Judicial District of Maryland, to the High Court of Chancery of Maryland. Passed Jan. 26, 1847.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any equity suit now depending, or which may hereafter be commenced or instituted in any of the county courts of the third judicial district of this State, the judges or any one judge thereof, may and shall upon suggestion in writing, by any or either of the parties, supported by affidavit or other evidence that such suggestion is not made for purposes of delay, order and direct the bill, exhibits, answers and all other proceedings in such suit, to be transmitted to the High Court of Chancery of Maryland, and the High Court of Chancery shall proceed to hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit had been originally instituted therein.