

the provisions of the act entitled, an act to incorporate a company for constructing a bridge at the Point of Rocks, Frederick county, Maryland, opposite Potomac Furnace, in Virginia, passed at the present session of the General Assembly, shall have effect, shall be fully indemnified by said bridge company for all damages she may sustain by the loss of the profits of her ferry at the Point of Rocks aforesaid, in consequence of the erection of said bridge; such damage or damages, to be assessed by two or more competent commissioners, appointed equally by the parties interested, and said damages, when so assessed, shall be compensated, either in the shape of a certain annual charge on the profits of said bridge company, or by a fixed sum to be paid to said Margaret Graham, her heirs or assigns, by said company, as may be mutually agreed on between the parties.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of an act, inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall be, and are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 255.

An act to incorporate Fell's Point Lodge, Number Forty-four, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Passed March 9, 1847.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas C. James, George Myer, Thomas H. Spencer, Edmund B. Burt, John Meiser, Moses Pettinger, and others, the officers and members of Fell's Point Lodge, Number Forty-four, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Maryland, attached to the Grand Lodge of Maryland, and their successors, be incorporated and made a body politic and corporate, by the name and number of Fell's Point Lodge, Number Forty-four, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Maryland, and by that name may sue and be sued, have a common seal, and the same at their pleasure alter, and be entitled to use the powers incident to such corporation.

Incorporated

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That they, as a corporation, shall be capable of taking and holding real and personal estate, not exceeding the value of ten thousand dollars, which estate shall never be divided among the members of the corporation, but shall descend to their successors,

May hold real and personal estate.