

1847.

INDEX. 1847.

ALLEGANY COUNTY—

Chap. Sec.

gregate make up at least five hundred dollars.

228 1

The receivers appointed shall when qualified as hereafter provided take charge of all the goods and effects, &c., other than real estate of said individual, &c., against whom petition shall be preferred, including all bonds, mortgages, &c., together with all open and book accounts, &c., and sell and dispose of the goods, &c., of said individual, &c., who shall have refused, &c., to pay &c., upon such terms as the court may direct, and collect and make available the bonds, &c., and said receiver shall as soon as he shall have settled up the business of said individual, &c., by sale, &c., shall pay off, &c., the debts due from said individual, &c., to the person in their employ, &c., and to the furnisher of ore, &c., and if the proceeds of the goods, &c., of said individual, &c., and debts, &c., owing to, &c., committed to the management of said receiver, &c., shall not be sufficient to pay, &c., then the party, &c., to the petition, &c., shall be paid pro rata, &c., provided that no attachment, &c., nor mortgage, &c., or other lien law except such as heretofore provided prior to this act for the benefit of mechanics, shall reach, &c., or operate as a lien upon the goods, &c., of said individual, &c., nor on any debt, &c., due to him, &c., so as to operate to the prejudice of the claim of the persons in his employ, &c.

2

Every sheriff or coroner having any attachment or execution against the goods, &c., of any individual, &c., engaged in mining, &c., to examine whether said individual, &c., be indebted as aforesaid, and if so, to exempt from levy, a sufficiency of the property of the character, &c., to meet all such indebtedness, &c., and if the persons

7

1

2

3

4

5

1

2

ACADA
OCCO DIRBA