

general meeting of the members at any time, upon giving ten days notice by advertisement in two of the public papers of the city of Baltimore, or by serving a notice upon the members in writing, or leaving such notice at their places of abode, and they shall call such meeting whenever requested so to do in writing by twenty members or more, and when so requested, upon refusal or neglect so to do within four days, any number of members not less than twenty may call such meeting, by giving the notice as aforesaid, and at all such meetings it shall require a majority of all the members belonging to the corporation to form a quorum for the transaction of business, but any number exceeding twenty may have power to adjourn from time to time until a quorum shall be present: article sixth, the president and directors, for the time being, shall give, or cause to be given, ten days notice or more in two of the public papers in the city of Baltimore, or written notice served on the members personally, or left at their places of abode, of the time and place of holding an annual election for directors: article seventh, one-third of the directors, after the first election, shall not be eligible at the next ensuing election, and so on alternately in each and every year, and their places supplied by other members, and all vacancies in the board may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors, and such directors so appointed shall serve until the annual election of a new board.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the directors, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to impose limitations and restrictions, by withholding profits or dividends, or in any other mode, upon such member or members as violate any rule or bye-law of this corporation, and by a vote of nine directors a member may be expelled and deprived of his membership, and be subjected to such terms of settlement with the corporation as the directors, or a majority of them, may decide, and such member so expelled shall be bound legally and equitably by such decision, and no member shall be allowed to withdraw his weekly deposits but upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as shall be prescribed by the bye-laws.

Withdrawal of deposits restricted.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to allow the said corporation to issue any note, token, scrip or device, to be used as a currency.

Banking forbid.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the business and affairs of this corporation shall at all times be subject to

Subject to inspection.