Rights reserved SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Legislature reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 249.

Passed Feb. 28, 1850. A supplement to the several acts relating to the New Castle and Frenchtown Rail Road.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, for public convenience in the travel and transportation upon the New Castle and Frenchtown Rail Road, it is necessary, under the delays and hazards of navigating the Elk river as far as Frenchtown, particularly in the winter, that the said road be allowed to be extended to some termination below Frenchtown.

May change route

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the said New Castle and Frenchtown Turnpike and Rail Road Company to change the western route of said rail road at some place or point to be determined by the board of directors, and thence to extend the same by locating and constructing a rail way with one or more tracks from such point or place to such other point or place on the Elk river, between Frenchtown and Back creek, as the board of directors may deem most eligible.

Acts extended

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the several acts of incorporation heretofore passed, and now in force in relation to the New Castle and Frenchtown Turnpike and Rail Road Company, shall be and are hereby extended and applied to the locating, constructing, using, repairing, and preserving from injury, the rail way authorised by this act, and the directors of said company are hereby authorised and empowered, in relation thereto, to exercise all the powers granted in and by the said several acts of incorporation.

May condemn land

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary for the said company to have, use, or occupy any lands, materials, or other property, in order to the construction or repairs of any of the road authorised by this act, or the works or necessary buildings, the president and directors of said compa-
