

CHAP. 332.

Authority to continue open
subscription
books.

Authority to extend road.

Rights conferred by charter secured to extension.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the Liberty and Franklin Plank or Turnpike Road company, or any three of them, be, and they are hereby authorised to continue open the subscription books until the first day of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, if the whole capital stock of the said company shall not have been previously subscribed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Liberty and Franklin Plank or Turnpike Road company, is hereby authorised to extend the said road, from its present prescribed terminus, on the Liberty road, to Beans' mill on the Patapsco, upon the bed of the said Liberty road, with the power of diverging therefrom at such point or points as, in the judgment of the said company, may be advantageous, for the purpose of avoiding hills, or selecting a more suitable bed for the said road; and the said company is hereby also authorised to extend the said road to the city of Baltimore, from its present prescribed place of beginning, subject to all the limitations, conditions and qualifications contained in the original charter, in relation to the right of way.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all the rights and privileges conferred upon the said company by its charter, in relation to the erection of toll-gates, and the collection of tolls, upon the said Liberty and Franklin Plank or Turnpike road, are hereby secured to the extension of the said road hereby authorised, and all the duties and obligations imposed upon the said company in relation to the character of the said road, by the said charter, are hereby, in like manner imposed upon the said company, in relation to this extension.

CHAPTER 332.

Passed May 29, 1852. AN ACT to vest certain Powers in the Corporation of the Town of Cumberland, in relation to Streets.

Authority for laying out
streets, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor and councilmen of the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county, shall have full power and authority to provide for laying out, opening and extending any street or alley, within the bounds of said town, which, in their opinion, the pub-