CHAPTER 349.

AN ACT for the relief of John H. Mitchell, of Harford county. Passed May 31, 1852.

WHEREAS, It appears by the petition of Julia Ann Harwood, of Harford county, that Sarah Dever, a Revolutionary pensioner of the State of Maryland, died on the 24th of November, eighteen hundred and fifty, and that there was due her, the said Sarah, at the time of her death, from the State, the sum of fifteen dollars and eighty-five cents; And whereas, it appears that during the last illness of the said Sarah Dever, she was obliged, in consequence of her indigent circumstances, to anticipate her pension, by drawing on her friend, John H. Mitchell, for such articles as were indispensable to her in her last sickness; And whereas, it appears that the said Julia Ann Harwood, is the only surviving child and heir of the said Sarah Dever, and she asks, as an act of justice, that a law may be passed making the amount due her mother, at the time of her death, payable to John H. Mitchell; Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer, be, and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, to John H.
